

Step By Step Ordering Guide

Step 1

Download and print the measuring guide form for the garage door you require.

Step 2

Please refer to the measuring guide, to find out how best to measure your garage opening for the correct size bracket. This will ensure the correct sized door is paid for at point of order. Please note: Your measurements will not be used as exact sizes for manufacture. A professional surveyor will complete the final survey for production.

Step 3

Order your new garage door.

Step 4

A member of the Birkdale team will make contact, within 24 hours of order, to arrange a site survey. During the survey members will choose the exact colour they require. The site survey will take place within 1 week from point of order.

Step 5

An installation date will be organised during the site survey for a timescale of 6-8 weeks for Side Hinged Garage doors.

Step 6

Before installation, please read the preparation guide to ensure your property is correct for installation
